THE LAWRENCE SCHOOL ORDERS

SANAWAR, 2ND JANUARY, 1953.

No. 1, GREETINGS—A very happy New Year to all Sanawarians. May the School and every member of it have a happy and successful 1953.

No. 2, VALEDICTORY—General K. M. Cariappa will be laying down the high office of Commander-in-Chief very shortly. Many Commanders-in-Chief in the past have been warm friends of the School but none has been a greater friend than General Cariappa. His friendliness, his unfailing kindness to the School and his interest in our every activity has endeared him to all Sanawarians and it is a matter of pride that he should have associated himself with us in so many ways. His name will be perpetuated at the School in the Cariappa Shield but we shall remember, too, the help he gave us in extending our playing field. More than twenty-five years ago Bishop Barne had a similar scheme in mind but could not carry it through. It was General Cariappa's drive and initiative that helped us. And so we bid goodbye to one who was a friend. His work as C-in-C will be writ in large letters in the history of the Indian Army which he served so faithfully and well for thirty-four years. No history of Sanawar, either, would be complete without mention of him. We knew him as a friend and as a gentleman and we can but hope that though he ceases to be Commander-in-Chief he will find it possible to visit us from time to time and that he will come to regard Sanawar as a home from home. Sanawarians unite in wishing him good luck and good health in abundant measure.

No. 3, WATER—The reserve is now 2,40,000 gallons.

Please Turn Over.
